AUTUM WEDDING

Of Miss Mary Franklin Beard and Mr. R. A. Reeves.

The marriage of Miss Mary Franklin Beard to Mr. Andrew Raymond Reeves, of Greenwood, Miss., was solemnized in Hardinsburg, last Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church, South. Rev. B. F. Wilson performing the ceremony.

The church was exquisitely decorated; the altar banked with Maidens-hair and Plumbago Ferns and baskets of Fall flowers.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Russell Compton and Miss Isabelle Hendrick sang "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me." Mrs. C. Vic Robertson, accompanying.

The bride who entered on the arm of her father was beautifully gowned in pale pink georgette mounted over peach blow satin, she wore a picture hat of pale gray paune velvet and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. Immediately preceding the bride and her father, was little Cora Richardson Beard in a dainty lingerie frock and carrying the wedding ring hidden in the petals of a LeFrance rose.

Miss Virginia Helm Milner and Miss Fannie Walton Reeves, were bridesmaids, charmingly gowned in frocks of brown tulle, mounted over gold cloth wearing picture hats of dull gold lace and carrying arm bouquets of sunburst roses. Miss Virginia Beard, was her sister's maid of honor; she wore a lovely frock of pale blue georgette crepe over silver cloth, and a drooping picture hat of silver lace, and carried an arm bouquet of LeFrance roses. Mr. Ward Reeves was his brother's best man and Franklin Beard and Mr. Saxton Richardson, cousins of the bride, were groomsmen. Mr. Carlton Richardson, Mr. Murray Beard and Mr. Marvin Beard were ushers.

The bride's traveling costume was dark blue with taupe accessories.

The couple left on the afternoon train for a short honeymoon trip, a portion of which will be made by motor through Kentucky. Mr. Reeves is a member of the wholesale hardware firm of Reeves & Reeves, of Greenwood, Miss. and has a promising future. He has seen service in the U. S. Army over seas, where he won the rank of Captain. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morton Beard and is an accomplished musician. Her popularity was attested by the numerous and handsome presents received. They will reside in Greenwood, Miss.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Carrie Ward Reeves, her daughter, Miss Fannie Walton Reeves and Wade Reeves, all of Greenwood, Miss., Mrs. George Schreiber, of East Orange, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Richardson, of Midway, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Richardson, of Garfield, Ky., Mrs. Ernest Robertson, of Glen Dean, Ky., Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Milner and Miss Sallie Richardson, of Union Star, Ky.
